JOSEPH H. BROWN'S ESTATE.

The marriage of Joseph H. Brown, late of this county, to Mary Ann Brown, late of this county, was solemnized at the residence of the bride, on the 10th day of May, 1889, by the Rev. J. H. Brown, Minister of the Gospel, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of this city.

A Fortunate Purchase

A consignment of 150 Dress Parasols, not intended for us, have come into our possession at a large discount from manufacturers' prices. They are scarcely two alike and each one is a model of taste. This is a windfall for us and for you. Come quick for them.

G. Y. SMITH & CO.

SUPREME COURT.

DECISIONS RENDERED AT THE PRESENT AUSTIN SITTING.

The Findings.—Hon. John W. Stanton, C.J.; E. R. Gaines and John L. Henry, Associate Justices; Chas. S. Morse, Clerk.

C. A. Headless et al. vs. Joseph Winter et al.; trespass to try title, except as to Wise who is alleged to be asserting some claim of a claim to the land in controversy, which was a violation of plaintiffs' title. It does not appear that Wise answered, but judgment was for him, and no question as to his answer presented for reversal. Defendants answered with plea of not guilty and other appropriate defenses, alleging that plaintiffs claim a cloud on their title and asking that plaintiffs' title be declared null and void, and that they be quieted in their title and possession. Asking for a continuance which was refused, and failing to make out their case plaintiffs' appellants asked to be permitted to take a nonsuit, which was refused by the court, on the ground that defendants were asking for affirmative relief, judgment was accordingly entered for defendants.

BOLD ROBBERS.

Dallas Surprising the People with Verdicts of Guilty.

NEGROES LOOKING FOR GORE.

The Saddlers' Strike Assuming Proportions—A Farmer Doped—Police Alarms—The 48-Hour Walking Match Nearing a Close.

A BOLD ROBBERY.

DALLAS, TEX., May 2.—At 10:30 o'clock last night a bold robbery was committed at the drug store of J. M. Pace, Jr., corner Main and Lamar streets. The store was open for business and the parties in charge were at or near the front doors. The back door of the store was closed and bolted. Some unknown party reached through a broken window pane in the back door, unlocked the door and went into the store. The cash register was near at hand and this was stolen. The thief took the register across Lamar street and tore out the drawer, leaving the remaining part of the register. Going up the street a short distance he removed the contents of the drawer, about $50. At this point he left the drawer and fled. Policeman Marce came by, found the drawer and then found the register. From the papers left in it he knew where it belonged and took it back to the store and notified the inmates. The visit of the officers returning the register was the first intimation the house had of its loss.

A COLORED BARGE.

The ball given last night at the colored park, under the auspices of the Grand Water's union, was in every way a success, but a disgraceful affair took place at its close, while some of those in attendance were taking the street cars for their homes. A number of cars were in waiting to carry the guests to the city after the close of the ball. The drivers of the cars were ordered to start the cars as fast as loaded. About twelve or fifteen persons had boarded a car, driven by Tom Jones, and told Jones to drive on. Jones refused to do this until the car was filled. The negroes used some very insulting language and commenced striking the drivers, with pallings torn from a fence. Officers intervened and the row stepped. A number of negroes were arrested and taken to the police station. A waiter at the Windsor, received a two inch knife cut across the abdomen, from which his entrails were protruding. He was removed to his home on Young street and medical attention given him. The fight was so raised that it is impossible to find who did the cutting. From all that can be learned Dillingham had nothing to do with the fight. He is in a critical condition and there is but little hope of his recovery.

A CONVICTION.

At last it is demonstrated that a Dallas county jury can convict a man for murder in the first degree. Twice within as many weeks this verdict has been returned in Judge Tucker's court. A few days ago George Martin was convicted for the murder of Della Chase and given a life sentence. This morning the jury in the Carter-Roberts case returned a similar verdict. Carter will hang for the murder of Della Chase.

THE FAIR MANAGEMENT.

The fair management has secured the services of A. W. Campbell of this city and placed him in entire charge of the race course for the coming fall festivities. Mr. Campbell is known throughout the United States as an honest and fair track manager, and his appointment will be satisfactory to all. There will be purses to the amount of $300 for this season, which will ensure the course the great attraction of the fair. President Connor of the association, starts East in the morning to arrange for other attractions, among which is the attendance of the National Horse show for one week. Two bands will be employed, each to play one week. The fair for 1891 promises to be the best ever held in the South.

Some time ago THE GAZETTE stated that during an important murder trial the floor of the courtroom began to settle and the court had to adjourn to the floor below to complete the trial. On yesterday during the trial of Carter Roberts the floor again began to yield to the heft of the crowd upon it. The rooms are not safe for the large gatherings, and it looks as if the court would have to hunt for quarters to occupy until the new courtroom is finished.

OK FOR GOODS SCHEME.

J. J. Hastin, a farmer of this county, has been duped by the green goods racket. He got word to come east and get a lot of money for a little. He decided to go and took with him $50. He was to meet the party who had the money at Niagara Falls. From there he was sent to Plainfield, N. J. Here he met a son of the man who had the money and the farmer and son went to Hoboken. In an old building the trade was made, the farmer paying $49 for $50 in the "green." The farmer was sent home, and the supposed money was started by express. The farmer got home broke, but the $500 never came. Mr. Hastin told his tale to United States Deputy Marshal Hufnagel.

THE STRIKE.

The status of the harness makers strike is growing serious. The three harness manufacturers were seen to-day and it was learned that a general strike was expected next week. Tenison Bros. have only four boys and two men at work, one of the men being a member of the union. Daggitt Bros. were found in conference with one of their leading men and at present have nothing to say further than that so far no trouble has arisen in their factory. At the Schoellkopf factory all was quiet, but the proprietor said he expected all his hands to quit next week, as it was decided for all the factories to adopt the piece plan, which appeared to be obnoxious to the hands of the factory of Tenison Bros. It is understood that the new rule goes into effect next week. Schoellkopf employs about sixty hands and he says he is willing to close up a couple of months if necessary. Tenison Bros. say they apprehend no trouble in employing non-union help, but they prefer not to do so if they can avoid it. The matter lacks a great deal from being settled.

POLICE ALARM.

The city council will hold its regular session to-night and will elect the usual officers required to be filled by the council.

In his tenth annual report to be submitted to the city council to-night, Chief of Police Arnold will renew his request for a police alarm system, which can be operated in connection with the fire alarm system and which will cost but comparatively little when the benefits to be derived from the system are considered. He will ask for an increase in the number of policemen, and he will recommend the adoption of a new plan for public works and it may be applied to the police force. He will also recommend the building of a new police station at the intersection of Market and Collin streets, where the old calaboose, which is a frail and dilapidated structure, now stands. The present building is unfit and unsafe for the purposes for which it was designed—the security of city records. Considerable unclaimed personal property of various description is accumulated in the vaults of the police department. The report will probably recommend the sale of this miscellaneous collection, the proceeds to be turned into the treasury of the Police benevolent association.

A long and interesting session is looked for and much work will probably be done.

THE WALKING MATCH.

The forty-eight hour walking match between Mickey Finn and Richmond is growing interesting. Finn, who is well known in Fort Worth, is doing a splendid walk. At 4:30 this afternoon Richmond had completed his 100th mile and Finn at the same hour scored 101 1/2 miles. Both men held up well, to-morrow night will be great and will close at 10 o'clock p. m.

NOTES.

A contract has been let by which the Artesian well sunk some time ago at the court-house will be supplied with water from a view of obtaining a 3,000,000 gallon flow.

George Martin, who a few days ago was given a life sentence for the murder of Della Chase, was to-day refused a new trial by Judge Tucker.

President Guild of the Board of Trade will appoint a strong delegation to attend the Fort Worth convention on May 12.

KILGORE CORALLED.

He Talks to a Gazette Man About Chilton, Reagan, Mills and Texas in the Next Congress.

Special to the Gazette.

LONGVIEW, TEX., May 2.—Hon. C. Buck Kilgore is here attending the naval and military examination of candidates for Annapolis and West Point cadetships which will be held to-day. In a conversation with him he said that the appointment of Chilton was a happy one, and he believed would lead to much good, as Chilton was young, yet very intelligent, and with twenty-five years or more ahead of him would undoubtedly make one of the foremost statesmen in the senate. He also said that the acceptance of the position on the commission by Reagan was a happy one, as Reagan was a happy one, and he believed would lead to much good, as Reagan was young, yet very intelligent, and with twenty-five years or more ahead of him would undoubtedly make one of the foremost statesmen in the senate. He also said that the acceptance of the position on the commission by Reagan was a happy one, as Reagan was a happy one, and he believed would lead to much good, as Reagan was young, yet very intelligent, and with twenty-five years or more ahead of him would undoubtedly make one of the foremost statesmen in the senate.

Mr. Kilgore looked exceedingly well and talked in that breezy, elegant style for which he is so famous, yet all the time one could easily detect the fire of his eyes showing plainly why he kicked open the capital door. Any one would know instantly that he would brook no nonsense of restraint. He complimented highly the Texas representation in the national congress, and said Texas would not be behind any state in the Union in ability in the next congress. He said he was for Mills, and it looked now as if he would be the next speaker.

FOSTER'S RETURN.

He Submits to Secretary Blaine the Reciprocity Agreement with Spain.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Special Commissioner Foster has returned to Washington from Europe. Foster called upon Secretary Blaine this morning, bearing a copy of the new reciprocity agreement negotiated by him with the Spanish government. The secretary and Foster discussed the document at some length, but its contents will not be made public at present.

Secretary Blaine's agreement is of such nature as to preclude publication until the president shall read it. He also declined to state whether or not the document was a treaty on the agreement under the new tariff.

Secretary Foster on Financial Matters.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Secretary Foster, in speaking to an Associated Press reporter today, said that the financial matters, said in his opinion the government would be able to take care of all its obligations, and that in addition to the $200,000,000 bonds already retired by this amendment, it would, in his opinion, add a considerable amount in the two years that remain. Concerning the $100,000,000 legal tender redemption fund in the treasury the secretary said he did not expect that any condition of affairs would arise which would make it necessary for the government to touch it. He intimated, however, that this fund might be used without legislative action in case of absolute necessity to prevent any discredit to the government's obligations.

The Effect of Creole Female Tonic is almost magical in relieving prostration, pains in the back, rush of blood to the head, irregular or painful menstruation and female weakness.

No Sale of Paces.

BRAZIL, IND., May 1.—The miners' strike was begun to-day and 1800 black coal miners and 600 bituminous coal miners are in it. The eight-hour demand seems not to affect the miners of this district so much as other questions. One year ago a scale of prices was agreed upon and the miners' strike was ended, and the time having expired and no rate established they will come out until such time as an agreement can be reached. This relates to black and coal miners exclusively.
